

Titanic Writing Contest

The tragic sinking of the legendary Titanic marked a significant turning point in sea travel. It claimed the lives of hundreds who quickly realized they couldn't control the unexpected. Some struggled to save themselves. The bravest among them showed the rest of the world what it meant to be truly heroic in a difficult moment, sacrificing their own lives to rescue others around them.

Can you think of a moment in your life that you consider to be an important turning point for you?

- What was it?
- How did it change your life?
- How did it impact others around you?
